DAIKOU Privacy Policy

Thank you for using our products and services! We respect your concerns about privacy and appreciate your trust and confidence in us.

Here is a summary of the information contained in this privacy policy. This summary is to help you navigate the privacy policy and it is not a substitute for reading everything! You can use the hyperlinks below to jump directly to particular sections.

What information do you need to provide to DAIKOU?

If you register an account to use DAIKOU then we will need some information from you to set this up (e.g., to set up a profile and validate your phone number). To set up your account, we will need a nickname, your mobile number, and a password. You can further refine and populate your profile with additional information. If you use the services available within DAIKOU, we will process information to allow the services to operate.

How do we use your information?

We use your information to provide DAIKOU to you, allow you to communicate with other users, and to use the features of the DAIKOU Open Platform. We use your information for account setup, to facilitate communications, provide support, allow you to access features of DAIKOU, and to improve DAIKOU. DAIKOU uses contact channels provided by you, such as mobile number or email address, for verifying and protecting your account and for important administrative reasons and does not use these channels for promotional or marketing reasons.

Who do we share your data with?

We do not share your information with any third parties, except where we need to in order to provide the service (e.g., use SMS service providers for account validation for mapping services for other point of interest services using our affiliates around the world to help us to deliver DAIKOU) or if we are instructed to by a court, authority or compelled by law. We use these third party services solely to process or store your information for the purposes described in this policy. Any third party (selected by us) with whom we share user data is required to provide the same or equal protection of user data as stated in this policy.

Where do we process your data?

Our servers are located in Phnom Penh, Cambodia and Singapore. We also have support, engineering and other teams that support the provision of DAIKOU to you, located around the world. Your data may be accessed from such locations. Rigorous internal control measures are undertaken to strictly limit access to your data by designated team members.

How long do we keep hold of your data?

The time we retain your information for depends on the type of information for example, login data is retained for up to 90 days from the date the data is collected. If you instruct us to delete your DAIKOU account, your information is deleted within 60 days of the latter of verification of account ownership and receiving your account deletion request.

How can I exercise my rights over my data?

Depending on where you live, you may have special rights over your data and how we can use it. These include how you can access the data, erasing the data, restricting how your data can be used, objecting to its use, and getting a copy of your information.

How will we notify you of changes?

If there are any significant changes to this Privacy Policy, we will update the policy here and notify you before the change becomes effective.
